Worship Notes

The opening voluntary this morning is Arnold Sherman's, "Song of Peace." It is a reflection of the way the world has treated peace almost from the beginning of time. The gentle round Dona Nobis Pacem is given a rather harsh, angular treatment representing the needless violence and senseless acts of terrorism that plague the world almost on a daily basis. An original, lament-like melody is interspersed with the round, echoing the psalmist's cry, "How long, O Lord, how long?" The dissonance builds and rises, and finally stops. Out of the cacophony comes the round once again, this time in a much more harmonious setting, signifying our eternal hope that peace will come one day for all humankind.
