Lots of places to Serve!

Dear Ladies of FUMC: Thank you so much for the lovely and delicious meal you prepared for our family before my dad's service. It was so nice to be able to come together as a family for nourishment and fellowship before we said goodbye to Daddy. My parents considered FUMC to be their home and I appreciate the love and friendship you gave them and the rest of our family. God bless you all. Love Whitney Carter, Bud Hale's daughter.

Thank You! I am so thankful to be a part of such a loving and caring church. You all have been such a comfort to me and my family in so many different ways. You are truly God's angels. Louise Goodwin

Great Day of Singing

On Sunday, May 5, First United Methodist Church will observe A Great Day of Singing at 11:00 a.m. worship. The Chancel Choir will lead the congregation in great hymns of the faith. In addition, a covered dish salad luncheon will be in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the service.

A Great Day of Singing was begun in the 20th century as an annual Sunday worship service set aside for the celebration of music and congregational singing. Though less used today than it once was, it remains an annual event in some churches. It was sometimes combined with fellowship and a meal and was called All-Day-Singing-and-Supper-on-the-Grounds, often with the singing and eating taking place outdoors or near a river.

Methodists have always been a singing people. The world has never seen a greater hymn writer than Charles Wesley, nor a more important and influential hymnal editor than John Wesley. This service seeks to revive interest in the Great Day of Singing, and it does so within a context that celebrates the great heritage and tradition of Methodist song. All of the hymns selected were composed by Methodist writers or have a strong historical Methodist connection. The order of service is also thoroughly United Methodist, taken directly from "An Order of Sunday Worship Using the Basic Pattern," pages 3-5 in The United Methodist Hymnal. Plan to join us for a Great Day of Singing!
