Great Day of Singing

First United Methodist Church will observe A Great Day of Singing at the 11:00 a.m. worship. The Chancel Choir will lead the congregation in great hymns of the faith. In addition, a covered dish salad luncheon will be in the Fellowship Hall immediately following the service.

A Great Day of Singing was begun in the 20th century as an annual Sunday worship service set aside for the celebration of music and congregational singing. Though less used today than it once was, it remains an annual event in some churches. It was sometimes combined with fellowship and a meal and was called All-Day-Singing-and-Supper-on-the-Grounds, often with the singing and eating taking place outdoors or near a river.

Methodists have always been a singing people. The world has never seen a greater hymn writer than Charles Wesley, nor a more important and influential hymnal editor than John Wesley. This service seeks to revive interest in the Great Day of Singing, and it does so within a context that celebrates the great heritage and tradition of Methodist song. All of the hymns selected were composed by Methodist writers or have a strong historical Methodist connection. The order of service is also thoroughly United Methodist, taken directly from "An Order of Sunday Worship Using the Basic Pattern," pages 3-5 in The United Methodist Hymnal.

The choral response to the Benediction will be sung in the congregation so that former choir member, Reverend Joe Daniels, may join the choir in singing Peter Ludkins, "The Lord Bless you and keep you."
