The Waccamaw Youth Center is committed to providing the at-risk youth of South Carolina with a safe and comforting place to call home. Originally founded in 1988 as Advocating for Children's Community Treatment, the Waccamaw Youth Center was incorporated in April of 1991 in response to a study done by several state human service agencies. Each agency recognized a critical lack of housing for our target population. Most foster homes are unwilling to accept male teens and teens with a history of neglect and abuse are often among the most difficult to place. As an inevitable result, our target population is at particular risk of repeated moves between homes unsuitable to meeting their behavioral and emotional needs, or placement outside of their community. For teens already at-risk, this further disruption greatly compromises even the most well-intentioned efforts to assist in their families. Waccamaw Youth Center was pleased to open in February of 2001 and has continued to provide "A Place to Call Home" for up to 16 abandoned, abused, and/or neglected youth. Since 2001, the Center has served over 150 young men! In that time, we have seen many youth grow up into honorable, hardworking men within our community.

BBCS

BBCS? Do you wonder what it is? Have you seen the signs? Would you like to help? BBCS stands for Brown Bag Catch-Up Special. It's a program designed to allow us to erase our budget deficit. All of us have some amount of discretionary income-money that we use to buy lunch, Starbucks or that special pair of blue jeans, you know what it is. Our challenge to you is to avoid that purchase and donate the money to your church to help us wipe out our deficit. You will notice brown bags throughout the church. Simply take your extra contribution, put it in a brown bag and drop it in the collection plate. The amount we collect and the resulting reduction in our deficit will appear in each weekly bulletin.

PRAY ABOUT IT....THINK ABOUT IT....CONSIDER IT....
AND THEN DO IT!
