Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ: Together we mourn the senseless, violent deaths of the nine persons gathered for Christian fellowship and study at Emmanuel AME Church in Charleston Wednesday night. We United Methodists have an opportunity to collectively express our love and concern for these victims and their families by receiving an offering on their behalf in the coming days and weeks. Offerings may be directed to the South Carolina annual conference on behalf of Emmanuel AME Church. All offerings received will be directed to the church to use for the grieving families, congregation and community. Individuals may contribute through the annual conference website and local churches may do so through their regular means of connectional giving.

Please be generous with your prayers as well as your offerings as we support our Pan-Methodist family at this time.

Grace and peace,
 Bishop L. Jonathan Holston

New Sunday Morning Study Group

Join us in studying Crazy Love by Francis Chan on Sunday mornings at 10:00. The study will begin on July 5. "Have you ever wondered if we're missing it? It's crazy if you think about it. The God of the universe - the Creator of nitrogen and pine needles, galaxies and e-minor - loves us with a radical, unconditional, self-sacrificing love. And what is our typical response? We go to church, sing songs, and try not to cuss." If you would like to join the study, please contact Julie Whitten at julie@designfrenzyinc.com or 251-747-0787.

Funds are still needed to complete the project; as of press time, the conference had brought in more than $69,000 of the $86,000 needed to cover the cost of the meal-packing. Any funds raised beyond the $86,000 will go toward both hunger and children in poverty ministries across the conference and shared equally among the 12 districts.

To donate, visit www.umcsc.org and click on the "Stop Hunger Now" box at top right. Donations should be submitted by the end of June.

A moving song written and performed by Dr. Paul Harmon during Annual Conference, "Come to the Table," is now available for download, with all proceeds going to help the Stop Hunger Now effort.

The Tuesday night service celebrating the meal-packing took up an offering, with $19,205 going to benefit the effort. ~ by Jessica Brodie writer for the Advocate.

The Worship Committee is seeking your help! The United Methodist Church created a supplement to our current in hymnal in 2000 entitled The Faith We Sing. We have been using some of these hymns already!

Each copy is $13. Would you be willing to purchase one or more? Our side pews need 6 each at $78 and the middle pews need 8 each at $104. They may be purchased in honor or memory of a loved one.

Patriotic Celebration

First United Methodist Church in Myrtle Beach is hosting a Patriotic Celebration on Sunday, July 5. The concert is at 4:00 p.m. with doors opening at 3:30 p.m. A community choir of 55-60 voices, directed by Norman McQueen and Ann Miles, will be accompanied by brass quintet, timpani, percussion, flutes, piano and organ. First UMC handbell choir, under the direction of Jayne Smith, will ring the prelude.

Familiar Patriotic songs will include Battle Hymn, America the Beautiful, and God Bless America. The congregation will have an opportunity to join in singing fun songs that will take you back to early school days.

A highlight of the celebration will be an Armed Forces Medley. Current military and veterans will process carrying their branch flag and members of the congregation will be invited to stand during the singing of their hymn. This promises to be one of the most exciting and emotional parts of the celebration.

The afternoon will end with watermelon on the front lawn and the community is cordially invited to attend. The church is located downtown Myrtle Beach at the corner of 9th Avenue and Kings Highway.
