First View

Our entire church family is invited to enter a season of decision and commitment toward the goal of becoming fully devoted disciples of Jesus Christ. The theme will be Committed to Christ: Six Steps to a Generous Life. Throughout these weeks we will be asked to make or renew our commitment to Christ. There will be opportunities for you to join in this through daily devotions, Sunday school, and worship. Daily devotional books are available in the Narthex & Commons Area.

Art Show in the Commons: The art work of Sue Dusenbury is being displayed in the church commons through October. The show is exquisite hand-sewn quilts made by Sue for various occasions in her life.

Sue Dusenbury is a member of FUMC and sings in the Chancel Choir. She has a passion for all things quilt including quilt history, techniques and sharing her God given ability and love for the craft with others. Ms. Dusenbury has been making personalized quilts for the young people who live at Waccamaw Youth Center since 2006 and has made over 50 quilts.

Beginning Sunday, November 4, the art work of church member and South Carolina Glass Artist, Ann Myers, will be on display in the Church Commons.

Evening service in the Hut: The Sunday evening service is an informal service of music, Word and prayer. Musical selections are taken from the Cokesbury Hymnal. The evening message is presented by various clergy and lay speakers. There is a time of sharing prayer needs and concerns with opportunity for unhurried prayer. The evening service in the Hut has resumed at 6:00 p.m. Reverend Kyle will be this week's speaker. Lib Wellons and Margaret Jordan will play piano duets during the service.

Eat, Pack and Wrap

Wednesday, October 24 starting at 5:30 p.m. with supper followed by fun and fellowship for all ages as we pack and wrap shoeboxes for Operation Christmas Child. Urgent need of small stuffed animals or "Beanie Babies."

Advent Bible Study

Join Rev. Kyle beginning Wednesday, November 7 at 6:30 in Rm. 205 for a 4 week Advent study. The study will begin in the weeks leading up to Advent so that we will have an opportunity to prepare ourselves for the Advent and Christmas season as well as to acknowledge our busy schedules as the holidays near. The four-week study will lead us along the road to Bethlehem. We will meet Nov. 7 and Nov. 14, Nov. 28 and Dec. 5. Contact Rev. Kyle for more information.
