THANK YOU!

Dear Youth of FUMC: Thank you so much for the cheerful gifts you brought to my house before Christmas. The poinsettia and the cookie brought big smiles to our faces. Thank you again for thinking of us.

Fondly, Libby and Mike Saville

Thank you for the Christmas poinsettia the youth brought, very encouraging to us. And the basket of fruit from the Emma Thompson Class was very nice to have during the holidays. Please continue to pray for Frances.

Sincerely, Bill and Frances Reaman

Dear Kyle, Staff, Youth and our loving Church Family: You all have surprised us again with the lovely poinsettia. We surely have been enjoying it through the holidays and will continue to enjoy it, it still looks like it just came from the florist. We miss all of you and thanks so much for the prayers and concern. We love all of you! Prayers for all of you. Jan and George Kyzer

Dear Young Folks at FUMC, Thank you all so much for my “portable Christmas,” the little poinsettia. I did some decorating this year but not as much as usual since I could not see “my young people” because of Covid. It was very cheerful to have the poinsettia. When I wrapped presents, I put it in that room. When I cooked, I put it in the kitchen. When I worked on my computer, I put it on the desk. When I watched TV or read, I put it in the den. When I moved around the house and was going to be in a room for a while I took the flower! Thank you so much. Take care of each other and be safe. Love, Kathleen McCracken

Thank you for the poinsettias that were delivered to my mom and to me. I appreciate being remembered at this lonely time for our Church Family. The sweet girls that delivered them were very special. Jeanne Fisher

Prayer Concerns: Donald Smoak, Delano Sanders, Lavon Singleton, Cherry Thompson, Lois Sayre, Jeannie Dusenbury, Jill Nelson, Margaret Jordan, Sylvia Thompson, Frank Watts, Glenda Sweet, Dave Grimes, Bob Miller, Val Dunham, George & Jan Kyzer, Joann Wiegand, Woodie Woodward, Bobby Stilley, Julia Land, Sue Dusenbury, Janet Von Deck, Frances Reaman, Virginia Hardwick, Sylvia Avant, Rebecca Howell, Eugenia Benton, Ruth Thomas, Ted Boyd.
