

April 18, 2019 Maundy Thursday 6:30 p.m.

With nightfall our Lenten observances come to an end, and we gather with Christians around the world to celebrate the Three Days of Jesus' death and resurrection. At the heart of the Maundy Thursday liturgy is Jesus' commandment to love one another. As Jesus washed the feet of his disciples, we are called to follow his example as we humbly care for one another, especially the poor and the unloved. At the Lord's table we remember Jesus' sacrifice of his life, even as we are called to offer ourselves in love for the life of the world.

* GREETING
Return to the Lord, God of all mercies,
for a feast of love has been prepared for his own.
I will bless the Lord at all times.
His praise shall be continually in my mouth.
O taste and see the goodness of the Lord.
Happy are those who take refuge in God.
O magnify the Lord with me,
And let us exalt God's name together.

* THE HYMN No. 289 Herzliebster Jesu
Ah, Holy Jesus

* PRAYER OF CONFESSION AND PARDON
Friends in Christ,
in this Lenten season we have heard our Lord's call to struggle against sin, death, and the devil—all that keeps us from loving God and one another. This is the struggle to which we were called at baptism. On this night let us confess our sin against God and our neighbor, and enter the celebration of the great Three Days reconciled with God and with one another.

Most Merciful God, we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

THE FOOTWASHING
Fellow servants of our Lord Jesus Christ: On the night before his death, Jesus set an example for his disciples by washing their feet, an act of humble service. He taught that strength and growth in the life of the Kingdom of God come not by power, authority, or even miracle, but by such lowly service. Therefore I invite you, as many as may wish, to come forward, that we may recall whose servants we are by following the example of our Master.

Please leave shoes/socks behind, come forward to one of the stations and in turn wash and dry the feet/hand of a fellow Christian and then allow your feet/hand to be washed.*

HYMN No. 292 What Wondrous Love Is This Wondrous Love

* THE PEACE
Upon washing the disciples' feet, Jesus said to them, "I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; peace which the world cannot give, I give to you." Reconciled by his love, let us offer one another signs of peace.

The peace of the Lord be with you.
And also with you.

April 19, 2019 Good Friday 6:30 p.m.

At the heart of the Good Friday liturgy is the passion according to John, which proclaims Jesus as a triumphant king who reigns from the cross. The ancient title for this day—the triumph of the cross—reminds us that the church gathers not to mourn this day but to celebrate Christ's life-giving passion and to find strength and hope in the tree of life. In the ancient bidding prayer we offer petitions for all the world for whom Christ died. Today's liturgy culminates on Easter morning.

GATHERING IN SILENCE

* THE PRAYER
Christ himself bore our sins in his body on the tree.
That we might die to sin and live to righteousness.
Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ was lifted high upon the cross so that he might draw the whole world to himself. Grant that we, who glory in this death for our salvation, may also glory in his call to take up the cross and follow him; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE REPROACHES: CHRIST'S LAMENT AGAINST HIS FAITHLESS CHURCH

This is the wood of the cross, on which hung the Savior of the world.

Let us worship and bow down.

O Savior of the world, who by your cross and precious blood did redeem us:

Help, save, pity, and defend us, we pray, O Lord.

O my people, O my Church, what have I done to you, or in what have I offended you? I led you forth from the land of Egypt and delivered you by the waters of baptism, but you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I led you through the desert forty years and fed you with manna; I brought you through times of persecution and of renewal and gave you my body, the bread of heaven; but you have prepared a cross for your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I made you branches of my vineyard and gave you the water of salvation, but when I was thirsty you gave me vinegar and gall and pierced with a spear the side of your Savior.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I went before you in a pillar of cloud, but you have led me to the judgment hall of Pilate. I brought you to a land of freedom and prosperity, but you have scourged, mocked, and beaten me.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I gave you a royal scepter, and bestowed the keys to the kingdom, but you have given me a crown of thorns. I raised you on high with great power, but you have hung me on the cross.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

My peace I gave, which the world cannot give, and washed your feet as a servant, but you draw the sword to strike in my name and seek high places in my kingdom.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I accepted the cup of suffering and death for your sakes, but you scatter and deny and abandon me. I sent the Spirit of truth to lead you, but you close your hearts to guidance.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I called you to go and bring forth fruit, but you cast lots for my clothing. I prayed that you all may be one, but you continue to quarrel and divide.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I grafted you into the tree of my chosen people Israel, but you turned on them with persecution and mass murder. I made you joint heirs with them of my covenants, but you made them scapegoats for your own guilt.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

I came to you as the least of your brothers and sisters. I was hungry but you gave me no food, thirsty but you gave me no drink. I was a stranger but you did not welcome me, naked but you did not clothe me, sick and in prison but you did not visit me.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal One, have mercy upon us.

* THE BLESSING

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you.

By your holy cross, you have redeemed the world.

If we have died with him, we shall also live with him.

If we endure, we shall also reign with him.

Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, we pray you set your passion, cross, and death between your judgment and our souls, now and in the hour of our death. Give mercy and grace to the living; pardon and rest to the dead; to your holy church peace and concord; and to us sinners everlasting life and glory; for with the Father and the Holy Spirit you live and reign, one God now and forever. Amen.

*On a hill backlit by twilight,
the disciples gather like crows
for the night.*

*This is their down time, time to browse
among the olive branches, Christ with them, their apostolic flight slowed at last
to a head-nodding drowse,*

*to a flutter of tattered cloak,
the unraveling hem
dragging in the dirt like a hurt wing.
They flock momentarily around him,*

*then settle down, safe in the soft swing
of wind that rises and then falls back with deepest evening*

Into distance, and sleep, while Christ's black feathers burn in his father's fist, plucked by God before by Judas kissed.
